PROOF FROM THE FIELD

For decades, we have been trusted with crucial government and military installations nationwide. Here is just one of the many examples that showcases how our proven expertise can deliver outstanding, personalized results.

588TH MAINTENANCE COMPANY
United States Army at Fort Sill, OK

When a military vehicle runs into a problem, the 588th SSA at Fort Sill, Oklahoma, jumps into action to make repairs as quickly as possible. Their fleet of supply trailers houses all the necessary parts and tools, along with trained maintenance crews, to back up every mechanized division.

We were challenged to support this fast-moving combat infantry unit with easy access to crucial supplies. Our solution was to outfit their trailers with a custom storage system inventoried by barcode.

The result? A well-organized trailer that helped speed up the repair process and optimize efficiency for the crew. The 588th can now have vehicles up and running in under 4 hours. "That's a logistics capability that no army on earth can match,"

— Tim Smith, Storage Engineer
